Hang in there, I'll update The Form when I have time because this thread is not really complete.

Edit: just a note:

<http://www.subdivisionmodeling.com/f...8&d=1171353597>

That image was never used by me, I believe Toontje used it in one of his posts.

This post is great, but some images are missing.
could you do something about it? ...it would be great

Hello everybody!

Someartist, I'm a 2d man and somebody tells me that if I want to create a useful 3d model I should learn edge loops. Your thread seems to help lots of people, and I hope after I read a few times it will help me too. But I can't see the videos, can you fix the links?

Thank you very much.
